SANTA FE.

The Governor of Santa Fe's message on the opening of the Provincial Legislature is as long as that of President Roca; every line breathes a feeling of prosperity and advance, well worthy of the second province of the republic and of the granary of the country. This wheat message is the most refreshing document we have perused; it shews at a glance the industry and wealth that have risen in a few years. Cheap and fertile land, emigration and a little capital have made Santa Fe the head province of the Interior. Lands are daily becoming more valuable, new railways are being constructed, and the population is increasing rapidly with the numerous new arrivals from the Mediterranean. With good Government, Santa Fe before long may become as wealthy and as productive as Buenos Aires. It is merely a question of time and policy, as the advance of the moment rests on the sound foundations built by the following colonies, the names of which should be fixed in gold letters over the Legislature of the Province:—

Esperanza, Pujato, Cavour, Humboldt, Humboldt Chico, Rivadavia, Grutly, General Sarmiento, Progreso, Larrechea, Pujol, San Jose, Franck, Las Tunas, San Agustin, San Carlos, Matilde, San Geronimo, Sauce, Lubary, Santa Maria, Pilar, Nuevo Torino, Felicia, Nueva, Bella Italia, Rafaela, Susana, Aurelia, Argentina, Piquete, Guadalupe, Cayastacito, Emilia, Sol de Mayo, San Justo, Distrito Agricola San Lorenzo, Jesus Maria, Carcarañá, San Geronimo del F. C. C. A., Roldan, Candelaria, Iriondo, Clodomira, Carmen del Sauce, San Urbano, Teodolina, Establecimiento Germania, Cañarda de Gomez, Gesler, Oroño, San Martin de las Escobas, Corondina, Colastine, San Genaro ó Caridad, Santa Teresa, Larguia, Bustinza, San Jose del Rincon, Santa Rosa, Cayasta, Helvecia, Francesa, San Javier, California, Alejandra, Romang and Reconquista.

To the above colonies we must add sixteen new ones, started during the last twelve month. These colonies embrace an area of over 700,000 acres of cultivated land. Six hundred thousand acres are under wheat, the remainder under maize, linseed, barly, etc. Fifty thousand colonists till the ground and reap a harvest of 250,000,000 kilos of wheat, maize, etc. etc. The population between the number of colonists and the harvest of last year shews the great wealth of the colonies, and at the rate new concessions are being started and new settlements planted, we may expect to see double the number of labourers employed, and double the quantity of grain produced before five years. The wealth of the colonies does not alone embody the harvest, as millions are made in daily products and cattle-raising. There are six head of cattle to every colonist, one-third of which are milch cows and bullocks.

Over one hundred threshing machines and engines are employed during the harvest months, and orders have been given to furnish this city for one hundred more. The advance of the province, in fact, is that of the colonies; this advance dates from 1877 and its velocity is undiminished. The Government launched a loan of £1,000,000 to meet the demands of the great growth of the Province and to facilitate means of communication. The signal success of the loan shewed the credit of the Province abroad; but this credit in London ceases from a very indefinite notion of the prosperity of the Province. If the capitalists in the London market knew the vitality of Santa Fé, its immense natural productions, and its extraordinary advance in the last ten years, a 6 per cent. loan of the Government would be eagerly seized at par. This indefinite knowledge of the Province accounts for the fact that Van Dieman can apply with success for funds at 4 per cent. Land in Santa Fé is immensely superior to that of Van Dieman; its production is much larger than that of the latter, and its population more numerous.

The Santa Fé Government may get money at 4 per cent., but all the national advantages of the Province will fail to inspire the necessary confidence unless the finances of the Government are placed on a sound footing. The revenue of Santa Fé during 1882 amounted to $f1,388,000; from this amount we must deduct the revenue from the sale of land to Murrietta, $f627,000. Now we may put the revenue of the Santa Fé Government for 1882 at $f760,000. If the finances of the Province were better managed the revenue of the Government would be double the present figure, and the Finance Minister has already begun a reform in the valuation of properties. The tax levied on properties up to last year were based on a valuation tariff, drawn up ten years ago. Land in Santa Fé has doubled and trebled in value since then, and the new valuation tariff for the "Contribucion Directa," the chief source of revenue, will yield in the annual year much larger returns.

With a sound management of the finances of the Province and a policy fostering colonization, Santa Fé will become the emporium of the Republic; it has an immense back country and a splendid water route in the Paraná, and, what with its immense national advantages and foreign emigration, the present advance will be accelerated in an astounding ratio. The thrashing machine and the plough are the arms in the escutcheon of Santa Fé; they embody the great motors of progress in this country, and agriculture may raise the fortunes of Santa Fé to a higher level than sheep and cattle have done for Buenos Aires.

THE "NOVILLO" WINS.

The "Novillo" has given his head a higher toss in Congress than anybody expected. The zeal of converts is proverbial; and the budding Free Trade tendencies in the National Legislature took an unlooked for spurt on Friday in the adjourned debate in the Chamber of Deputies, on the Bill to suppress export duties on meat, no matter how preserved. Deputy Mallea deserves a gold medal for his victorious amendment on Article 2, the result being that live cattle of all kinds can now be exported free of duty, for ten years, which may fairly, in this connection, be understood to mean for ever. An export tax is the most vexatious, absurd and unproductive of all taxes, and we are truly surprised to see Deputy Calvo adopt such a manifestly unsound Protectionist idea as that free export of our cattle will enrich the Banda Oriental and Brazil at this country's expense, and the still more extravagant one that an export tax on live cattle might be injurious to the Cuyo provinces, but is beneficial to those of the Litoral! An export tax benefits nobody, neither him that gives nor him that takes; but is simply a stick cut by the former wherewith to whack his own back. The country is to be congratulated on the result of this "Novillo" debate, which may prove the thin end of the very big wedge that must, sooner or later, be driven, for the country's weal, into our faulty system of taxation.

The debate was resumed by Deputy Garcia who, speaking for the Finance Committee, declared that the general character of Article 1 of the Bill, already sanctioned, rendered Article 2—referring to the free import of meat-freezing machinery and materials—useless, and he asked leave to withdraw it. Agreed to.

Deputy Mallea proposed the following amendment:—

Art 2—So long as fresh and preserved meat shall be free of export duty, as provided by the previous Article, live stock exported from the Republic shall likewise be exempt from same duty.

The honourable Deputy made a clear, eloquent and convincing speech in favour of his motion, exposing the injustice of exempting meat from export dues for ten years, while the impost would perhaps be maintained on the raw material; he declared himself an advocate of Free Exportation of all kinds of products.

Deputy Garcia expressed profound surprise that those who had most strenuously opposed free exportation had now become its warmest advocates. The conquered had ardently espoused the cause of the victor. Why had they waited so long before avowing themselves Liberals? Why did they accept, and even amplify, to-day what they condemned yesterday? Did they wish to pass an Act that the Senate could not sanction. It was a parliamentary dodge.

Deputy Bouquet warmly supported the amendment, and said he would like to see it embrace all articles of saladero produce.

Deputy Calvo went over the same ground as Deputy Garcia, and ably criticised Deputy Mallea's amendment. He thought it should be rejected, as abolishing sixty or seventy thousand pats. of revenue was of no great consequence, but half a million was quite another affair. He considered that free export of our cattle would simply enrich Banda Oriental and Brazil at this Republic's cost, as its cows would be sent to those countries, where there was no duty, to be slaughtered. It might be injurious to put an export tax on live stock in the Cuyo Provinces, but such a tax was beneficial in the Litoral Provinces, the only ones that reared stock.

The House then divided, and Deputy Mallea's amendment was carried as proposed, Deputy Bouquet's addendum being rejected.

Thus closed this most important debate.

The Bill now goes to the Senate, where, it is to be hoped, it will meet with no opposition.

THE TRADE AND FINANCE OF THE ARG. REPUBLIC.

Included in a volume of reports from our Secretaries of Legation, issued by the Foreign Office this week is a full and very clearly arranged statement by Mr. Henry Nevill Dering, dealing with the commerce and financial position of the Argentine Republic for the year 1881. The official returns for that year have, Mr Dering states, been compiled with much greater care than those for previous years. They give, therefore, a better view of the real position of the country; and in comparing the more complete figures for 1880 with those for former years, it is necessary to keep in mind that some of the growth shown, being the result of this more accurate account-keeping, is only nominal. But that there has recently been a considerable development of the foreign trade of the Republic the following statement of the merchandise imports and exports during the past five years sufficiently shows—

Year	Imports.	Exports.
1881	£10,805,900	£11,213,800
1880	8,813,400	11,299,500
1879	8,973,600	9,553,100
1878	8,469,500	7,267,700
1877	7,827,700	8,665,100

Next as to the composition of this trade, we have the following analysis:

Imports	1881	1877
Articles of consumption—
(a) Raw	$9,678,033	$8,778,105
(b) Manufactured	37,125,391	22,871,350
	46,803,424	31,659,455
Articles for the use of industry—
(a) Raw material	$4,113,479	$2,761,873
(b) Machinery	2,045,062	1,041,233
(c) Fuel	1,067,640	797,239
Total	7,226,121	4,600,345
Grand total	54,029,545	39,138,715

Exports—	1881	1877
(a) Pastoral	$51,770,303	$38,208,064
(b) Agricultural	1,475,935	602,642
(c) Mineral	402,763	217,544
(d) Forest	286,180	56,879
(e) Industrial	1,592,313	4,412,639
Total	55,547,494	43,297,768
Various naturalised manufactures	521,610	27,901
Total exports	56,069,104	43,325,669

As to the imports, Mr. Dering looks upon the increase in the imports of raw material and machinery as a hopeful sign, pointing to a development of internal production. It is, however, in its pastoral industries that the growth of the Republic has been, and doubtless will continue to be, greatest, the large and continuous increase shown under this head being mainly in wool and hides. In the cultivation of sugar great progress, we are told, is being made in the provinces of Santa Fe and Tucuman, and Mr. Dering thinks there is little reason to doubt that in the course of a few years the home production will be sufficient to meet the demand, and the Republic will be independent of foreign supplies. Of the total imports in 1881, nearly 29 p. cent were derived from this country; but of the exports we took only 6·7 per cent. Next in order as regards the imports comes France, with 18½ per cent. of the total, while of the exports she takes 28.7 per cent. Belgium follows, supplying 6·3 per cent. of the imports, and taking 24.3 per cent. of the exports; and at a long interval come the United States, which supply 6·1 per cent. of the imports, and take 7 per cent of the exports. Combining both imports and exports, the proportions in which the various countries participated in the Argentine trade were:—

	1881	1877
	Per cent	Per cent
Belgium	15·5	17·4
France	23·7	20·4
Great Britain	17·6	18·0
Germany	6.8	8 9
Other European countries	9·1	8·4
United States	7·3	5·7
S. American States and W. Indies	12·8	18·6
Various and Unknown	7·5	7·6
	100·0	100·0

France and Germany have, it will be seen, been gaining a larger proportion of the trade, and the proportion carried on with this country has declined. Notwithstanding the growth in its trade, the Republic has not yet managed to secure an equilibrium between its revenue and its expenditure. For the year 1881, the receipts amounted to £4,269,000, and the expenditure to £5,676,000, there being thus a deficit of £1,407,000. In the revenue for 1882, however, an increase of £857,000, as compared with that of the previous year, was estimated for, while the expenditure was calculated at about £44,000 less, the totals being—revenue, £5,136,000; expenditure, £5,631.000. The deficit, it was thus anticipated, would be reduced to about £500,000, but whether this expectation has been realised remains to be seen. To cover the successive deficits, and also to provide for the execution of public works, a debt of nearly £16,000,000 has been contracted, the total indebtednees at the close of 1880 and 1881 respectively being returned as follows:—

	1881.	1880.
Internal Debt	£4,688,000	£4,808,000
External Debt	11,191,000	6,602,000
	15,879,000	11,410,000

Of the increase in the external debt in 1881, about £2,660,000 is caused by provincial debt to that amount being absorbed by the National Government, the balance being the amount of the railway loan negotiated here. At the close of last year Mr. Dering reports the following loans had been sanctioned by Congress but not issued:—

Riachuelo loan	800,000
City improvement works	1,600,000
Loan to pay debt due to the Provincial Bank	3,200,000
Treasury bills to pay on account	800,000
National Bank compensation	90,000
National bonds to pay Debt of Independence and Brazilian War	200,000
Total	6,690,000

A very considerable increase of the Argentine indebtedness is thus in prospect.—Economist.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

MR. JOHN FAIR'S REPORT.

At the general meeting of the great Southern Railway Co. in London, Mr. John Fair, who had just returned from a visit to the Plate, made the following speech.

Mr John Fair—I have very great pleasure in rising to second the adoption of the report. I will at once address myself to what, no doubt, will be the matter which you are most deeply interested in, not so much the report itself, which is so full and which has been so clearly explained by our chairman, as to the special matter of my own visit to the River Plate, what I saw, and the conclusion I came to about the state of matters there. I went out to the River Plate last September on private business, and having concluded that about the end of the year I determined to devote some time to going over the complete system of our railway. My first visit was made to the Ayacucho extension, which district I had gone over five years ago in company with our secretary and Mr. Cooper, and Mr. Coghlan, and Mr Moores of the Local Committee; we made a pioneering expedition from Azul to Tandil, and took the line from that up to Dolores. At that time it was a very sparsely inhabited tract of land, and there was nothing very promising or agreeable in its appearance. To use the words of the chairman, the results which have followed the establishment of our railway have certainly led to a 'marvellous transformation.' On this occasion, besides the gentlemen above mentioned, we were accompanied by Mr. Santa Maria. In travelling upon the Southern Railway I generally ride on the locomotive, taking, as my 'coign of vantage,' the cow-catcher, in company with the general manager and resident engineer, because that gives one the opportunity not only of seeing the permanent way and earthworks, but also the quality of the camps, amount of stock, &c. Each of the stations after passing Dolores has become a centre of activity and traffic. It was a most gratifying sight to see the number of carts loading the produce of the country, or discharging goods from B. Aires. The only town on the route was Maipu; it had the name of a town when we first visited it, but it then consisted of about a dozen houses at the most. On the occasion of our first visit we were surrounded by the clamorous inhabitants, consisting of about 20, who wished to know when they would have the railway. They have now had the railway, and it seems to have agreed with them, for they have grown fat on it, as it is now an interesting town with a number of nice houses and two or three very respectable streets. With regard to the other stations on the line the same thing may be said of them, and I believe in the course of a few years they will each develope into small country towns. A most extraordinary change has taken place in the town of Azul; it was a most dull, miserable place, but now it has become a bustling town. There were handsome two-horse carriages waiting to take us from the station, and as our party was rather a large one our arrival caused some excitement. I consider it politic on these trips to invite native gentlemen and English merchants who are interested in the welfare of the country to join the party, and that accounts for the party being a large one. One incident connected with our arrival there has been the establishment of several large Companies for carting goods from the whole of the district, on the South, East and West of the town. On arriving at Azul we were met by our engineer for the extensions (Mr Ware). We followed the line of earthworks in that direction, and several gentlemen who had never been in the South, especially one of them, who is known to most people at the River Plate, that is Mr Casey, expressed his surprise at the fertility of the camps in that part of the country, some parts being considered as fine as any to be seen in the North. Tandil has increased very much since I was there a few years ago, and as the chairman has said, when he returned from the country 15 months ago, it certainly will be one of the great commercial centres. We have been asked to carry our line on to Juarez, but, as I said to those who asked me, we have enough on our shoulders at the present moment without thinking of further extensions. After having returned from this expedition, we started upon our journey along the extension from Azul to Babia Blanca. That was a much more serious business, and in this journey, our party consisted of our general manager, Mr Cooper, Mr Coghlan, our consulting engineer, Mr Ware, our engineer in charge of the extensions, Mr Moores, chairman of our Local Committee, and as there were two seats vacant in the two carriages, we invited the English Minister, Mr. Dering, who takes a deep interest in this railway and everything connected with the commercial relations of the country which he represents with England, and Mr Krabbé, who has considerable property on the line, besides the accomplishment of being a good photographer, to accompany us on our journey. Several photographs of the port of Bahia Blanca are upon the table. On arriving at Azul, we were met by Mr Ware and his assistants, who are as fine a set of young fellows as I ever saw. Mr Ware is just the man for the business he has in hand at the present moment, carrying on three extensions at one time. He seems ubiquitous. So many days of the month are dedicated by him to each part of the line. From Azul we were taken to some miles beyond Olavarria by rail, and we passed through rich country in sight of the colonies, to which I will refer later on, well adapted for pastoral purposes. We passed the night at Sauce Corto, which has become during the last few years a great centre for sheep farming. A gentleman of the name of Muggeridge was the pioneer. He had the pluck to settle down there two years ago by himself, and he was followed by dozens of Englishmen, who have bought land in his neighbourhood, and to-day I believe that Mr Muggeridge would not sell the land for double the amount he gave for it. The second day we were detained by rain at Mr Muggeridge's. On the third day, skirting along the line of our earthworks, we reached the western extremity of the Curumalan range of mountains, along the base of which there are stretches of fine pasture lands. We bivouacked at the foot of these hills on the banks of the Pigne. People who have lived in Buenos Aires have never seen anything in the shape of a hill, but here we came in sight of a beautiful range of mountains, some of them probably 2000 ft. high. No doubt, in the course of time this will be a resort of the Buenos Aireans, who wish for a change of scenery and air, and nothing will be more beautiful than the southern slopes of these mountains covered with grass. We followed the line of the earthworks during the whole of the time, and upon the fourth day we arrived at Fort Argentine. This is the name of the old fort, but it is now a large estate belonging to a German gentleman, who has a very fine establishment there. The class of land there disappointed me a good deal, being much inferior to what we had seen between Olavarria and Curumalan we had passed. However, there are no engineering difficulties to be overcome in the neighbourhood of these mountains. On the fifth day we got on to table-land, broken here and there by small streams, and at the end of the day's journey we came down by a gentle descent upon Bahia Blanca. The town itself is not a lively place, but within the last twelve months you may say that there has been a complete revolution, or resurrection, and an amount of speculation and activity going on there which astonishes one. After having made a short stay here, we pushed on and arrived at the port of Bahia Blanca. Between the town and the port there were manifest signs of an active speculation in town and farm lots in the shape of the little houses of one room, which were dotted over the neighbourhood. When we arrived at Bahia Blanca we were astonished to find ourselves among piles of railway material. Our friend Mr. Livesey's sleepers were lying there in immense quantities, and there were several large ships lying alongside our temporary mole discharging railway materials. The work of unshipping was being carried on with activity, although there were a great many difficulties in the way. You can easily suppose that with a mole that had just been improvised, they were not ready to unload large ships as fast as can be done at home, but the difficulties were being overcome gradually. The last news is that all the ships are now clear, none being upon demurrage. While at Bahia Blanca we embarked upon the steam tug and went down the river a distance of about 50 miles. The whole channel is carefully buoyed, and ships of almost any tonnage will, as soon as our wharf is completed, be able to discharge there. Captain Howard, who commands an Argentine man-of-war, told me that he had been over a good deal of South America, and that he considered this was the finest port on the Atlantic seaboard.

(To be concluded).

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

DEFEAT OF THE MINISTRY—REPORTED ARREST OF TYNAN, WALSH AND SHERIDAN IN NEW YORK.

May 4.

The Government of Mr. Gladstone which, on purely political questions, can count on a majority of 59, was defeated last night on the Affirmation Bill by a majority of 3. The House consists of 640 members. 586 members must have taken part in the division. Of the missing 54 members, 32 are Liberals, 6 are Conservatives, and 16 Home Rulers. Some of these are absent from England, some are ill, and one is in prison. A few, particularly North Irish Liberals, stayed away, thus meaning to serve God without openly opposing the Government. It seems to have been long expected that if the Government had a majority at all it would be a small one; hence it is, on the whole, rather fortunate that they were defeated, because had they gained by a small majority, the Bill would have been mutilated in committee, and, in any case, thrown out by the House of Lords. It is better as it is. The defeat will only add to the general indictment, which is gradually being piled up against the Houses of Parliament that as at present constituted no longer represent the opinions of the day. The reforming and remodelling will be all the more sweeping next year or the year after.

In regard to the present point, the Press Association has received from a Liberal member of Parliament the following statement as to the political situation:—The Government have not yet had time to consult concerning the critical division taken at an early hour this morning, but it is clearly understood in political circles that as one result the public has seen the last of the Affirmation Bill for the present Parliament. It is equally certain that the House of Commons has by no means heard the last of the question at issue, which, indeed, will very soon force itself once more in some form upon the attention of the Legislature. In the event of Mr. Bradlaugh presenting himself to take the oath, it is believed the Government will leave the Opposition, and those who voted with them in the majority, to take such action as the circumstances seem to call for, and their course, it is expected, will eventually take the form of a resolution expressly refusing to permit Mr. Bradlaugh to sit in the present Parliament. Although attaching importance to the Affirmation Bill, the Government, it was well understood did not stake their existence upon it, and although they regret the rejection of the measure, there is some compensating advantages in improved prospects as to the fruitfulness of the present session, as the ground will be now somewhat cleared for other legislative work. In any case, if there had been a majority of much under 20 for the Bill, the Government would not have proceeded with it, owing to the extreme doubtfulness of getting it through the committee stage, besides running the risk of seeing it, after all, thrown out by the House of Lords. A meeting of the Cabinet is expected to be held to-morrow.

A great sensation was caused in Dublin to-day by the news published by the Press Association that Walsh and Sheridan had beeu arrested in New York, for the murder of Mr. Bourke and Lord Frederick Cavendish.

Walsh, on being interviewed yesterday by a newspaper reporter, is represented to have declared that he was not guilty of complicity in the Phœnix Park murders, and would not fear the result could an informer be brought here and the trial be held before an American judge and jury; whereas, if tried in Dublin his conviction was certain. Walsh declared that he could procure the most convincing evidence to show that he was in England at the time of the tragedy.

Sheridan declares himself to be fearless of any efforts of the British Government against him, and that at any time he may be called upon by the United States courts he is ready to defend himself. Regarding his presence in Dublin at the time of the murders, Sheridan states that he would make a statement on the subject at the proper time.

It is stated that up to yesterday evening the British Legation here had received no despatches from England regarding the extradition of Tynan, Sheridan and Walsh

The Freeman's Journal, under the heading, "A Mystery Unravelled," says:—It is well that those who permit themselves to be drawn into these shameful plots should understand that there is a James Carey in New York as well as in Dublin. The dynamite plot, it says, was betrayed in New York to the British Consul, telegraghed by him to Downing-street, and before one agent of the conspirators had sailed his name, the name of his ship, and the place of his destination were known in Scotland-yard. They were all waited for when they landed, kept under strict surveillance from that hour, and found when they were wanted. In Birmingham, Glasgow, Liverpool, Cork and London they were tracked by detectives. The Freeman thinks a member of the governing council of the conspirators alone could have furnished information so great and so extensive.

The trial of Laurence Hanlon for the attack on Mr. Field was resumed to-day at the Dublin Commission Court, before Mr. Justice O'Brien.

James Egan, examined by Mr. Murphy, said he remembered being in Hardwick-street, on the 27th of November, about six o'clock. He heard cries of "police!" and saw a car drive away. He afterwards picked up a hat (produced) in the roadway. Three police-constables were then examined, and proved having compared the hat (produced) with others in the shop where it was stated to have been purchased.

Mr. Bodkin thenaddresseed the jury for the defence.

His Lordship having summed up, the jury found Laurence Hanlon guilty, and he was sentenced to penal servitude for life.

Fitzharris pleaded guilty to being accessory after the fact to the Phœnix Park murders. He was put back.

As I have told you in another letter, Eitzharris was acquitted of the charge of murder. He has pleaded guilty to the charge of conspiracy.

In respect to the great libel cases, Lord Lonsdale v. Yates. and the Duc de Valambrosa against Truth, a most important point of law has arisen as to whether a criminal information could be filed without the sanction of the public prosecutor. A Court of five Judges is to be appointed to hear the argument.

The opening banquet of the National Club, where Lord Granville, Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley, editor of the Pall-Mall Gazette, each representing a particular shade of Radicalism, made long speeches, and the meeting of the Liberation Society, where Mr. Bright and others spoke, came to relieve one of the dullest weeks, in the way of news, I ever remember. It was equally dull in regard to the weather, which has been chilly and unspring-like.

We are now looking forward to the opening of the Royal Academy and to the Fisheries Exhibition, the inauguration of which is to be a very grand affair. All invitations say full uniform-consular, military or diplomatic. Owing to the continued lameness of the Queen the Prince of Wales is to open the Exhibition. There is to be a Royal procession of Prince and Princesses of the Blood, Ministers of State and Ambassadors. 400 fishermen and fisher girls, in their national fisher dresses, from England, Scotland, France, Holland, &c., are to take part in the ceremony.

The corvette Canada, recently built at Portsmouth, was commissioned for her first trip to-day, by Captain Durant, for service with the Channel Squadron. Among her officers is Prince George of Wales, who was in the trip in the Bacchante. His Royal Highness will be accompanied by his intimate friend, Midshipman Wemyss, son of th Earl of Wemyss.

I referred in one of my late letters to the Queen's unfortunate ukase in regard to roast lamb. Her Majesty has been since better advised. The Pall-Mall Gazette says:—

The Constitutional doctrine that the Sovereign can do no wrong is so useful in politics that it may well be extended to the kitchen. The ukase against the use of lamb, which Her Majesty has now formally withdrawn, must therefore be attributed to the blunder of some over-hasty adviser. But if the scope of Royal authority is to be extended so as, to quote from the "Court Circular," to "produce inconvenience and loss in many quarters," there are not a few farmers who will be inclined to cry out for a corresponding extension of the doctrine of Ministerial responsibility. That, however, will not be necessary. Her Majesty will, in future, probably reply to all similar counsels to "set an example which would interfere with the ordinary course of trade" by quoting the familiar question of one of her earliest advisers—"Why can you not leave it alone?"

Tbe Queen has been pleased to confer a Baronetcy upon Mr. C; J, Jessel, in consideration of the eminent services of his father, the late Master of the Rolls.

THE PHŒNIX PARK MURDERS.

This morning, at ten minutes past eleven o'clock, Mr. Justice O'Brien took his seat on the bench in the Courthouse, Green-street.

Mr. M'Caffrey, Deputy Clerk of the Crown—Put forward Patrick Delaney.

Patrick Delany was then put forward on an indictment charging him with the wilful murder of Mr. Thomas Henry Burke, in the Phœnix Park, on the 6th of May last.

Mr. M'Caffrey, Deputy Clerk of the Crown—Patrick Delaney, do you plead guilty or not guilty?

Patrick Delaney—I am guilty of being in the Park; but I did not commit the murder, nor had I act or part in it.

The Attorney-General—That is a plea of not guilty.

Mr. M'Caffrey—Do you plead guilty or not guilty?

Patrick Delaney—I plead guilty.

Mr. Justice O'Brien—Patrick Delaney, you are arraigned upon an indictment charging you with the murder of Thomas Henry Burke, and the punishment of that crime, if you plead guilty to it, is death. Do you plead guilty of the murder?

Patrick Delaney—I plead guilty.

The Clerk of the Crown—Patrick Delaney, you have pleaded guilty of the murder of Thomas Henry Burke. Have you anything to say why sentence of death and execution should not be pronounced against you?

The Prisoner—My Lord, I was brought into this thing, and was forced into it, and I had to obey the orders that were given, or take the consequence of death. I was in the Park, I seen the murders taking place, but I took no part in them. For my own safety I went away on Kavanagh's car, and he states what is perfectly true, and so does Carey state what is true, but I took no hand, act, or part in the murders. It was Brady and Kelly committed the murders, and no other persons. But, my Lord, about Judge Lawson. My Lord, it was I saved Judge Lawson's life at the risk of my life. I was put on to shoot him, and the only way to save him was to try to draw McDonnell's attention. It was the only way to get out of it and to save myself; and sooner than do it I would go to prison. I was put upon to it by Mullet and Joe Brady, and it was the only way I had of getting out of it—when in Kildare-street by pinching M'Donnell—there was no other way of getting out of it.

Mr. Justice O'Brien—Patrick Delaney, you have pleaded guily on an indictment charging you with the crime of murder. This is the second time you have stood in that dock. You were tried here for another great crime and found guilty, and that crime of which you were then found guilty was produced by the results of the impunity that you experienced in the crime to which you have now pleaded guilty. From my experience of that trial I happen to know something of you—and I say it is a melancholy thing to see a man like you—a tradesman of very great skill, capable of earning very large wages, and working as you did work for many persons in eminent stations—to find you now arraigned and doomed to death, as you now are doomed to death, upon a crime which is the consequence of your plotting against members of society. You have shown upon the occasion of your trial for the attack on Judge Lawson some little trait of personal feeling—of consideration for your unhappy wife and family—that led me to entertain some pity for you. See what you have brought yourself to, and see the misery and ruin you have brought on your wife and children by engaging in this wicked system of conspiracy. I have now one duty to perform, and that is to pronounce the sentence the law demands and requires, and accordingly (here his Lordship assumed the black cap) I do adjudge that you, Patrick Delaney, be taken from where you now stand to her Majesty's prison at Kilmainham, where you were last confined, and that on the 2nd of June you be taken to the common place of execution within the walls of that prison, and be hanged by the neck until you are dead; and may God have mercy on your soul.

The prisoner was then removed from the dock.

Thomas Caffrey was then put forward, and

The Clerk of the Crown said—Thomas Caffrey, you stand indicted for the murder of Thomas Henry Burke. Are you ready for your trial?

The Prisoner—Yes, sir.

The Clerk of the Crown—You have already pleaded not guilty. I am about to swear a jury to try you.

The Prisoner—I plead guilty, sir.

Mr. Justice O'Brien—Does he understand that he is pleading guilty to the wilful murder of Mr. Burke, and that if he pleads guilty the sentence must be a sentence of death?

The Clerk of the Crown—Thomas Caffrey, you are about to be tried for the murder of Thomas Henry Bourke. Do you wish to plead guilty to the wilful murder of Mr. Burke?

The Prisoner—Yes, sir.

The Attorney-General, M.P.—The prisoner has been already arraigned and has pleaded not guilty. As I understand, he wishes to withdraw his plea of not guilty.

Mr. Justice O'Brien—Ask him does he wish to withdraw his plea of not guilty and to substitute for it a plea of guilty. (Addressing the prisoner)—You have already pleaded not guilty to this indictment, and you are now about to be tried. The trial now proceeds. Whether you are found guilty or whether you plead guilty, the sentence that I am bound to pronounce is the same—sentence of death. Do you now, of your own will, wish to withdraw the plea of not guilty, and to plead guilty?

The Prisoner—Yes, sir,

Mr Justice O'Brien—Have you conferred with the solicitor acting for you?

The Prisoner—I told him that I wished to plead guilty.

Mr Justice O'Brien—And do you now withdraw your plea of not guilty, and do you do so entirely of your own responsibility and of your own motion?

The Prisoner—Yes, sir.

Mr Justice O'Brien (to the Clerk of the Crown)—Then enter that the prisoner having been put forward, and asked whether he was ready for his trial, applied to the Court to withdraw his plea of not guilty and plead guilty. Ask him now if he has anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon him.

The Clerk of the Crown having put the question.

The prisoner said—All I have to say, if I was standing on the brink of my grave, I did not know anything about the murders until about twenty minutes before they happened; and if I was ordered there and I did not go, my life would be taken.

Mr Justice O'Brien—Thomas Caffrey, I have no means of judging of the statement you have now made. However, I do not desire to be understood as necessarily conveying that that statement is untrue. However, this is another terrible example of the far-reaching consequences of a great crime. I have no means whatever of knowing anything about you, except that I assume that I am right in believing that you have been drawn into this crime which has brought you to your present deplorable condition by having become a member of a secret society of which the object was assassination. Your fate is an additional lesson to all persons of your class and station at once to come out of the wickedness for ever—this abominable and destructive system of secret conspiracy that has carried ruin and desolation into many homes. His Lordship here assumed the black cap, and continued—The sentence of the Court upon you, Thomas Caffrey, and I do adjudge and award that you be taken from the bar of this court to her Majesty's prison at Kilmainham, in which you were last confined, and that on the 2nd day of June in the present year you be taken from thence to the common place of execution within the walls of said jail, and there be hanged by the neck until you are dead, and that your body be buried within the precincts of the jail.

The prisoner—Thank you, my Lord.

The prisoner was then removed.

Mr. Molina, of No. 422 Calle Florida, won the whole of the big prize in the last Santa Fe Lottery.

EDITOR'S TABLE

Yesterday was an inexpressibly "soft" day. The floodgates of Heaven were opened at early morn, and the buckets came down in a style seldom seen here. The "sumpts" had all they could do to keep the streets passable. The suburbs are all afloat, or all a-mud. A pluviometer on the Flores Road registered yesterday at breakfast hour half a league of rainfall. By the way, a leading estanciero subscriber said to us yesterday that the rain telegrams sent to the papers are wretchedly dry reading, and he suggests, as an improvement, that rain-gauges be established at all the telegraph stations and the fall be wired, instead of the unfathomable words "lloviendo," "despacio," etc. We second the motion.

The Rev. Mr. Royce, Chaplain of the United States' Navy, conducts morning and evening prayer at the Flores Chapel to-day.

We have a letter from Salta for the City Gas Inspector, Mr. D. Carmody.

"Aida" is repeated to-night at the Colon Theatre.

We remind our Irish readers of the meeting called for Tuesday next at the Convent in Calle Rio Bamba, to obtain legal "personeria" for the Irish Trustees. Mr. Salas, "escribano," will draw up the necessary forms. It is earnestly hoped that the Irish representative residents in town and camp will make it a point to attend, as the business to be done is of much importance. There will be no collection at the meeting.

The Messages of the Provincial Governors are pouring in on us. All their High Mightinesses are pleased to say that they are at peace with their great and good friends the other Governors. This is consoling. We will publish any wheat there may be amongst all their chaff in due course.

We dined yesterday without having received a single answer to the conundrum in our last issue. We suppose the rain is to blame. Here's the solution:—

Because Turkey Shuffled.
Arabi cut
England played the deuce and won.
and France played the knave and desired to share honors.

We acknowledge with thanks a copy of the lecture delivered by Dn. Juan de Cominges at the Industrial Club on Friday night, proving that the Grand Chaco is by far the best place for sugar-growing in this Republic. Mr. C makes a very strong case, and we commend this highly interesting brochure to all who are in any way interested in the sugar industry.

The inauguration of the Alvear Grotto and fountains at the Recoleta has been postponed till next Sunday, on account of the rain.

We are forced to hold over our Rosario Letter for our next issue. It deals ably with the recent Message of the Vice-Governor of Santa Fe.

All our Italian colleagues donned inky mourning yesterday, as it was the anniversary of the death of Garibaldi.

The Opera House was crowded on Friday night to hear Mrs. Garcia's drama, "Las Corpani," the plot of which is truly French. There was much applause, and loud calls for the authoress were made, but she was ill and would not venture before the curtain. The President of the Republic was present, but left, as did others, before the conclusion of the play.

President Roca has fixed Tuesday and Saturday for his weekly evening receptions during the season. It is understood that Tuesday is the day for the Diplomatic Corps, members of Congress and high state functionaries, and Saturday for the rest of the world.

We notify our lady readers that the famous Progreso and City of London "tiendas" have an astounding supply of winter novelties on hands. It makes one warm to look at all the velvets, furs and other rich and rare garments on sale in these truly Monster shops. There is nothing to beat them, even in Paris.

Mr Ribes, the millionaire owner of river steamers, has placed the Jupiter at the orders of the Mitre Reception Committee, who will go down to Montevideo in her and bring the illustrious traveller back to "dulce domum."

A correspondent writing from Rio Janeiro says that the coffins in that locality are covered with black, red or violet material, bordered with gilt tinsel, giving them the sprightly air of bon-bon boxes.

The Administrator of Customs, Sr. Amadeo, has written a long note to the Direccion de Rentas, on the subject of canals, but we must hold it for another day.

The contract between the National Government and Messrs. Devotto Bros. for the completion of the City Improvement Works will be signed to-morrow.

A grand banquet will be given to the rising Argentine diplomat Dr. Cané, on Tuesday night, in the Cafe de Paris. The subscribers to the banquet include the foremost names in official and fashionable life.

There is tremendous news from Rosario, where the Municipality have put the Mayor "á la porte," for exceeding his powers. This is rather a novel affair in this country, where a Municipa President is generally looked on as no end of a "nob." The telegrams say that now that the Rosario Corporators have effaced the Mayor, the Government will efface them.

The lawsuit between the Municipality and the shareholders of the Colon Theatre is settled. The Corporation gets the theatre, and the shareholders have the privilege of paying the costs of both sides.

It is not What

Are generally termed 'Blood Purifiers' that people need when they are out of sorts, but good digestion. It is well digested food—bread and butter, beefsteak and mutton chops—that makes good blood and keeps it pure. Put the digestive organs in a healthy condition with a few doses of Dr Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and nature will do the rest. The blood cannot be impure if digestion is good.

Patacon	25.00
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas E	85½
National Bank Shares	104¼

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the hall was crowded this morning and much activity reigned round the ring. The incipient feelings of weakness detected last night in the speculation in National Bank Shares became more apparent this morning and prices dropped. Strong efforts are made to bear the market, but the stock gives way only slightly. Operations are limited to sales for the end of the month, and very little is doing for cash; the latter circumstance shews that holders are not scared by the fall and the bearish influences set to work in the market. Many attribute the fall to the fact that holders are selling out for the end of the month, others assert that there is some hitch in the Deputies, with regard to the bonds held by the Bank. The bears state that the Financial Committee, studying the question at issue, has applied to the Bank for details of the arrangement made on the security of these bonds, and that some difficulties have been put in the way. Whatever foundation these rumours may have, the weakness of the market was obvious during the early part of the morning. Very many operations were effected at 104½ for the end of the month, but prices closed at 104⅝ and 104⅞ (disponible). Close on 3,000 shares were sold during official hours, and only 30 changed hands for cash at 104½. The activity at the ring is due to the drop in prices.

Twenty seven shares of the Primitive Gas Company were sold this morning at $1,500 % each.

Operations in Cedulas amounted to little this morning. Fifteen thousand were sold for cash at 85¼ and 95,000 for the end of the month at 85⅜ and 85½ closing price. Six thousand Series A changed hands for cash at 100½.

The new waggons and engines for the Central Argentine Railway are arriving; the plant ordered in Great Britain by the Company is expected to be sufficient for the requirements of the great traffic going on.

The atttention of Mr P Agote, the talented head of the Public Credit Office, is called to a a serious mistake in his memoria: the clerks in the office have classified the Lanus Deposits bonds for $800,000 as a 5 per cent stock, computing the service at $40,000 per annum. This is radically wrong since all know that these bonds bear 6 per cent interest and 1 per cent amortization. The service on these bonds is $48,000 per annum. This mistake in the report should be corrected.

Small amounts of exchange were reported done this morning at 49¾; the market rules very dull.

The Hogarth has arrived in Montevideo with 2,000 tons of cargo, half for this port and half for Rosario. The mails come up in the Silex.

Advices from Paris announce the failure of a leading firm, connected with the Plate.

Seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars were offered to the proprietor of 600 squares of land in Pergamino and refused. This shows the value of land thereabouts.

The returns of the Rosario Custom House for last month are close upon $300,000. The activity in shipping in Rosario is unprecedented; ships are daily arriving with railway materials and leaving with cereals of the province.

The heavy rain put a stop to all business in the produce market this morning; wheat and maize men could hardly get near the plazas, owing to the very muddy state of the adjoining streets.

The sales at the ring during official hours were:—

Cedulas—
For cash A 6,000 at 100½
For cash E 15,000 at 85¼
For June 30th E 75,000 at 85⅜-½
Sales, 96,000
National Bank Shares—
For cash 30 at 104½
For June 30th 2,800 at 104⅝-½-⅝, disponible at 104⅞
Sales, 2,830
Primitive Gas Shares—
For June 4th 27 at $1,500 %

Judge Ortiz has ordered the embargo of the Mocareta saladero.

Dr. H. Bunge's fees in the great Azcuenaga-Basavilbaso lawsuit have been fixed by the Court at $10,000 %.

The Mozart has left Rosario with 500 tons of wheat.

A company has been formed in France with a capital of 4,000,000 francs to work some mines situated in the Province of Rioja, and belonging to Mr. M. Fernandez. The engineering staff, &c., are on board the F.M.S. Congo. This means more capital for the River Plate. The mining industry of the country has an immense future, and it is significant to witness the preference with which French capital and French companies rush into the mining business rather than into estancias and lands.

Forty thousand Cedulas Series E, fresh from the Bank, were sold during afterhours at 85¼ for cash. Several sales were effected for the end of the month at 85⅜, the market closing with buyers at this rate. It was rumored that one of the Directors of the Board of the Mortgage Bank had made a motion to suspend the issue of Series E; the market attaches no importance to the rumor. Operations in National Bank Shares ruled dull; a few operations were effected at 104⅝, and the market closed with sellers at the rate.

Payments on 'Change to-day did not amount to much. Most of the desks were crowded with wheat and maize men with a fair sprinkling of dealers in sheepskins.

The Nacional announces the sale of four leagues of land in Bahia Blanca at 100,000 % per league.

The lawsuit about the Colon Theatre has been finally decided in favour of the Municipality. New arbitrators must be named to fix the value of the building.

The sales at afterhours were:—
Cedulas—
For June 30th E buyer at 85⅜
National Bank Shares—
For June 30th 400 at 104⅝-⅝

We take the following from the New York Daily Commercial Bolletin:—

"Pittsburg, April 16th.—James Marshall & Co., iron pipe manufacturers, one of the largest firms in the business, made an assignment today to George I. Whitney. The liabilities are $1,500,000 and the assets about $1,250,000. The failure was caused by speculation in pig-iron. Since 1879 James Marshall has been purchasing largely, under the belief that prices must advance. The dullness of trade after a long strike, the uncertainty in regard to what Congress would do about the tariff and finally the failure of the expected advance after the tariff bill had been passed, all contributed to precipitating the crash. The Pittsburg banks are the largest creditors, but they will lose nothing, as they have collaterals for their loans which will realise the amount of the paper held by them. Among outside creditors are Marshall Brothers, Philadelphia; the Rockhill Furnace Co., Fayette; Receiver Brown, of Brown, Bonnell & Co., Youngstown, O.; Hogsett, Hanna & Co., Uniontown, Pa.; the Dunbar Furnace Co., and the Fairchance Furnace Co."

We take the following from the mails to hand:—

"It has been decided at a private meeting of the principal Bondholders of Uruguay, held on Thursday at the offices of the Council of Foreign Bondholders, to call a public meeting to consider certain proposals which have been made for a definite settlement of the Debt. We believe the terms are substantially as under:—

"The Foreign Debt to receive the full dividend of 6 o/o, subject to the following conditions:—

"The Internal Debt to be reduced in nominal amount, and to be consolidaied with the External Debt, forming a total of about £8,000,000 sterling, in lieu of nearly £11,000,000, the present amount of the Internal and External Debts.

"The total amount of interest to be payable under the proposed new arrangement will be about £110,000 per annum more than the present interest on both Debts.

"The Security will be the Customs' Duties, collected by an agent of the Bondholders, and remitted monthly to the Agents of the Loan.

"This arrangement seems to render Uruguay Bonds, as a 6 o/o stock, very low at its existing quotation of 45-46."

"The report of the Brazilian Submarine Telegraph Company for the half-year ending December last is moderately good. There is a small increase in the traffic of £2,100 as compared with the corresponding period of the previous year. The figures, however, look healthy if we go back a few half-years—

Half-year ending	Traffic.
December, 1878	£64,750
" 1879	77,172
" 1880	81,741
" 1881	86,086
" 1882	88,186

The same holds good for the whole years—the financial year of this Company ends in June.

Year ending	Traffic.
June, 1879	£139,654
" 1880	154,957
" 1881	167,350
" 1882	174,185

The current financial year has not yet run out, but we have seen that the first half of it, to December, 1882, has yielded some increase, and therefore it may be hoped that the whole year will be no exception to the rule. The Company has now operated eight years, and during that period every successive year has produced an increase, and while the first year of working gave £128,461 the last year (to June, 1882), returned £174,185, or £45,724 increase upon £128,461 in 8 years.

"The duplication of the Lisbon-Madeira cable has cost £99,007, which is paid out of the reserve fund, but this fund with the addition of £25,000 from the past half-year's profits, and interest, has still the large balance in hand, or rather invested, of £339,759. The whole capital of the Company is £1,300,000, all in ordinary shares, and unless Mr. Jay Gould does it harm—which is anything but probable—there does not appear to be anything to stand in the way of its prosperity. It now pays 7 o/o in a year, which may be regarded as a prosperous standard even for a submarine telegraph company. The past half-year has fully earned the rate of 7 o/o per annum besides the £25,000 for reserve. The Company appears to be eminently sound, and to have fair prospects of steady future improvement."

Los toros Waterloo Grand Duke y Endimion son los que estan actualmente al servicio de la cabaña; el primero importado de Inglaterra, por el Sr Downce, y el segundo remitido por el Sr Elia, por el cual se nos pago 25,000 ps., siendo uno de los animales que mas han llamado la atencion de los criadores mientras estuvo en nuestra casa y que con sobrada razon escribio el Sr Elia, "que mandaba animales en los cuales tenia la seguridad de perder dinero" probandolo el hecho de no haber repetido sus remesas.

200 ovejas y carneros Lincoln, siendo una parte de ellos importados expresamente para esta cabaña, de la del Sr Clark en Inglaterra como tambien los padres que las sirven. Estos animales seria demas recomendarlos, pues ningun criador de esta raza en el pais, ha alcanzado los precios obtenidos por esta cabaña.

Los animales denominados Merinos precoces son de un tamaño verdaderamente excepcional y como hasta la fecha no han venido al pais, es esta la raza formada por los criadores franceses para competir con los carneros ingleses Lincom, Cotswold etc.

Los hacendados que buscan animales para carne y que deseen conservar las lanas finas en sus rebaños, deben adquirir algunos ejemplares de estos,

Pues reunen ademas de su

Tamano Escepcional

Y de su peso excesivo y facilidad en el engorde una finura extra en su vellon

La importacion de este lote de carneros y ovejas, ha sido debido a la constante insinuacion de algunas compatriotas residentes en Francia, que han tenido oportunidad de apreciar personalmente el grande y escojido rebaño de M. Paul Bataille.

Los señores criadores que deseasen mayores datos sobre esta importante raza reputada por M. Andre Sanson (profesor del Instituto Nacional) la primera de Francia, pueden leer en su tratado de Zootecnia en el tomo 5° pag. 97 a 101, las palabras que les dedica y para mayor abundamiento y seguridad de informaciones, leer la obra escrita por el citado autor y titulada:

Revista Esperimental sobre el vellon de los Merinos Precoces y su valor como productores de carne

Cuya obra fue coronada por la sociedad central de Agricultura y debe hallarse en la biblioteca de la Sociedad Rural Argentina.

Los carneros estan ya en nuestra casa San Martin 51. La venta se anunciará con anticipacion para que los señores criadores puedan inspeccionar los animales.

The Colony in Gainza

Lands payable at eight years' credit without interest.

We have just concluded the sale of the 56 leagues of land we offered in Gainza at $250,000 % per league, payable 10 o/o or say $25,000 % cash, and the balance in eight yearly payment of $28,125 % without interest; last payment comes due in 1891; 28 purchasers of all nationalities bought these 56 leagues.

The land is noted for its goodness, and Clark's railway from Buenos Aires to Valparaiso passes near it, and will place settlers within reach of this city in one day.

The purchasers of these lands will probably double their capital in five years, although they have eight years to pay for them; because in the hands of 28 proprietors, in 5 years time we shall see all the elements of pastoral and agricultural progress firmly fixed in this colony.

We have still some 20 Leagues for sale, and we invite sheep and cattle farmers whether half-leaguers or ten-leaguers, to come to our office to 178 Calle San Martin to see the plans and study this business.
